Dear Ms. Dortch:

On June 28, 2011, David Hankin, CEO of the Alfred Mann Foundation (“AMF”), Jaime Harrison of the Podesta Group, and the undersigned, counsel to AMF, met with Louis Peraertz, legal advisor, wireless, international and public safety to Commissioner Mignon Clyburn, to discuss the AMF medical micropower network (MMN) project and the status of the above-captioned proceeding. The AMF representatives also discussed the results of testing efforts of the MMN system by the Joint Spectrum Center and the Aerospace Corporation, and urged the Commission to act expeditiously on the pending rulemaking.
